

Course Code: ZT012GS

Course Title: IBM Aspera Console Administration

Description:

This course is also available as classroom course IBM Aspera Console Administration (WT012G).

This self-paced course with hands-on exercises is intended to teach the necessary knowledge and skills to install, configure, and use IBM Aspera Console.

Objectives:

- Describe the operation of the FASP protocol
- Identify the key features of IBM Aspera Console
- Explain the function of the processes of Aspera Console
- Install and configure Aspera Console
- Add managed and unmanaged nodes to Aspera Console
- Define and use both simple and smart transfers
- Create and run standard and custom reports
- Create and run standard and custom reports
- Perform basic maintenance tasks

Exercises

- Exercise 1: Installing and configuring IBM Aspera Console
- Exercise 2: Adding and configuring Console nodes
- Exercise 3: Managing Console users and groups
- Exercise 4: Creating and managing Console transfer
- Exercise 5: Configuring and running Console reports

Duration:

8 Hrs

Topics:

- Overview of IBM Aspera Console
- IBM Aspera Console Architecture
- Installing and configuring IBM Aspera Console
- Exercise: Installing and configuring IBM Aspera Console
- Adding and configuring Console nodes
- Exercise: Adding and configuring Console nodes
- Managing Console users and groups
- Exercise: Managing Console users and groups
- Creating and managing Console transfers
- Exercise: Creating and managing Console transfers
- Configuring and generating Console reports

- Exercise: Configuring and running Console reports
- Basic Console maintenance tasks

Audience:

This course is intended for administrators of IBM Aspera Console.